July Newsletter 2018

Wow! It's hot! I hope you are all enjoying the heat wave, I certainly am! Except of course my poor garden is suffering, we haven't had any rain, in our pocket of Sussex since May!

Exhibitions

Ming Art Gallery, 27 Montefiore Road, Hove has exclusivity on 7 of my original large oil paintings. They are open Wednesday – Saturday 12-6pm.

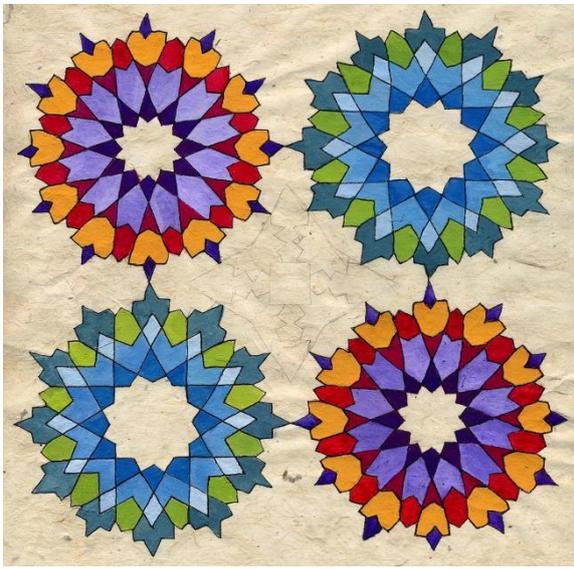

Sunshine Books & Art, 4 Hove Manor, Hove Street, Hove, BN3 2DF Open Monday to Saturday 9am-5pm, Sunday 10am-4pm have a collection of my original pen and ink drawings, cards and limited edition prints available.

Blogs

Don't miss my Art Seasonally project where I have drawn what has happened or been in flower since the beginning of the year... I've done more than 30 weeks now, so over half way through but it is becoming rather tricky to find plants alive with the heat wave!

It's all About Art this month is all about the secrets behind the art work and how a painting has been grown from it's seed...

Don't Miss! Art Workshops at Guildford Institute.

The new catalogue for September – December 2018 has now been published and the courses and workshops are booking up fast. I have opened up additional places on many of the courses so that they don't sell out too quickly! If you would like a place on either my Linocut – just one colour workshop or Creating Geometric Patterns workshop then sign up now to not to miss out. Please book directly with the Guildford Institute. A full list of the courses and workshops I will be running is on their website.
